WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION

GREATER BETHEL A.M.E. CHURCH Rev. E. B. Daniel, Pastor

Live Oak, Florida, November 16, 1938

The twenty-third session of the Northeast Florida Annual Conference convened 9 o'clock with the Rt. Rev. Robert A. Grant, A.M., D.D., LL.D., presiding bishop of the Eleventh Episcopal District, in the chair.

After the singing of "Down at the Cross," the bishop lined hymn No. 295, "And Are We Yet Alive?" He then offered prayer after which the choir sang "On Christ the Solid Rock I Stand." Rev. Williams, presiding elder of the Live Oak district, read the scripture lesson, which was followed by the reading of the Decalogue by Rev. T. D. Tyson, presiding elder of the Lake City district.

A missionary offering was lifted and then hymn No. 377 was sung, "O, God, Our Help in Ages Past."

The bishop then made some timely remarks about the necessity of knowing the A.M.E. church and then led in singing a hymn. He next introduced the Rev. I. S. Roundtree, pastor of Allen Chapel A.M.E. church, High Springs, to preach the annual sermon. He chose for his text, Matthew 7:9: "Be of good cheer." The subject: Keep Up Your Courage.

After the sermon, Rev. Lucious Dickerson led in singing "Courage My Soul." The bishop then formed a fellowship circle and all enjoyed an old fashioned Methodist hand-shaking, after which the bishop, assisted by the four presiding elders of the conference and Presiding Elder W. The bishop asked all who had been grumbling about the church asking for so much money to stand. Not one person stood. He then asked all who had not grumbled to stand. All stood. An offering of $65.00 was raised after which the bishop called for the committees on Education and Missionary Dollar or Pastor's Roll call.

At the request of the bishop, Rev. L. F. Morse read the report of the special committee of Local Church Extension. By motion of Rev. L. J. Jenkins, the report was adopted. The session closed with the singing of "God Be With You 'Til We Meet Again."

SUNDAY—MORNING SESSION

The Conference Sunday school was opened at 9:30, directed by Rev. C. J. Morris, acting conference superintendent. The lesson "The Sacredness of the Home," was well-taught by a splendid corps of teachers. The offering was $64.56.

The winners in the Oratorical Contest were presented and commended by the bishop. Bishop Grant gave a very excellent review of the lesson.

Immediately after the close of the Sunday school, the 11 o'clock worship services were begun, with Presiding Elder W. M. Williams, conducting the order of services. Rev. Williams then presented Bishop R. A. Grant to preach the sermon. His text, II Chronicles 15:7. Our bishop delivered one of the greatest sermons ever preached in any conference. The spirit ran high to the extent that men and women wept and shouted with joy. An offering of $50.00 was lifted.

The morning session closed with the benediction pronounced by the bishop.

SUNDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

Devotional services were conducted by Rev. W. M. Williams, assisted by Rev. Surrency and others. An offering of $20.00 was lifted. Resolutions were read by Rev. L. F. Morse. On motion of Rev. A. E. Tanner, seconded by Rev. L. Dickerson, the resolutions were adopted.

Bishop Grant then entered and after some fatherly remarks read the first nine verses of the first chapter of Joshua. Then lead the old familiar hymn "Go Preach My Gospel, Saith the Lord."

The bishop read the appointments. Rev. B. J. Carroll was transferred to the Orlando Conference.

After the Doxology, Bishop Grant pronounced the benediction which closed the twenty-third session of the Northeast Florida Annual Conference.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY

Live Oak, Florida, November 18, 1938

To the Bishop and Members of this conference:

We, your committee on "The State of the Country" submit this our report:

In studying the conditions of the country from various angles, we find much unrest, and as a whole, the world today is realizing a period of changes. We realize, however, that we are living in a great country—with a government and constitution unparalleled to any. The foundation was well planned by the fathers; however, this is an age of changes and upheaval never before thought of.

WAR: There seems to be a wave of peace permeating the land.

However, a larger Navy is being built—more and more men are being added to the Army, and the President is continually recommending that larger and more war planes be built—carrying out the old adage, "In the time of peace, prepare for war." War guns are being heard in the East. There is a mighty chaos with foreign nations. The German-Czechoslovakian situation is still apparently a grave one. The Japan-China confusion is still raging. War clouds seem to be looming up for another World War, and the situation is graver today than it has been since 1914-18. Yet in the midst of all this unrest, our country is apparently at peace with the world. And, in the midst of this changing and unsettled situation, we ask "Where can peace be found?" The answer comes ringing back, "When all men and nations will have accepted the teachings of Jesus, and the Kingdom of God will have had its way into the hearts of all people, there will be universal peace." Then all nations will rejoice.

ECONOMICS: The economic factor seems to be next in order.

However, economic conditions seem to be slowly improving. The United States Secretary of Labor stated on Nov. 7, that "Employment gains of more than 700,000 in private industry had been made from June to September, and there had been awarded $150,000,000 in PWA funds. Auto industry has called many to the payroll, with General Motors Company leading with 35,000. The Chrysler Corporation has more than 30,000. Other concerns are falling in line with these mentioned, to the extent that the less scrutinizing eye can see the rise in economic conditions throughout the country".

THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC: Five years have lapsed since the Repeal afforded a sufficient time for inquiry into some of the great benefits promised by the advocates of Repeal. One of these promises was that bootlegging and the illicit manufacture and sales of liquor would disappear. This has not taken place as yet.

Another promise was that there would be less drinking. There were scruples that the majority of people who drank, did so because they were forbidden to drink, however, we haven't been able to witness this let up yet. The corner saloon advertised its own iniquity, and citizens could warn their families against it; but wherever folk go they are confronted with the public sale and consumption of liquor. The old-time-saloon had its illuminated sign around the corner—"Ladies Entrances" where ladies of doubtful claim to title entered and drank. But now the drunken women are seen everywhere. In pre-prohibition days, a drunken woman was a monstrosity—now, she seems to be accepted in the social set-up. A young lady was questioned about the services of a church she visited one Sunday. This was her answer—"Oh, they sang a lot, read, prayed and then served cocktails in the finest glasses you ever saw." An incident like this is sufficient to mark the danger that confronts the Christian church today. The duty of the church is to acquiesce in the present shameful warfare of liquor against the soul of the Country and cry Peace! Peace! where there is no peace.

SOCIAL ORDER: The Social Order today is a grave situation, and people of all ranks seem to move in the same direction. Men are not known so much by classes and groups; for in most cases, we are all headed toward the one end. There is no perfect system of social government of society. Social institutions are of slow growth. Age after Age has made its contribution. In a time of discontentment and impatience, it is folly to think that one can smash what has been built through the ages, and in a moment—secure something better. The question is "Whether a possible and altogether different form of social government and society such as many are advocating would result in greater good and happiness, or in more misery and unhappiness, than prevails under the present system?" Before we abandon the imperfect for something altogether different, let us be sure that we have a foundation upon which to build a greater happiness and prosperity than the present day social order.

MORALS: The moral standard of the world today is at its lowest ebb. Immorality is sweeping the country like "forest fire" fanned by a mighty wind. Home life seems to have lost its training of past years. The family altar has been replaced with card tables, and the prayer room of the home has been given over to dance halls. The automobile comes in for its place in the downward trend of immoralities, and this most cursed invention might be styled as a "fly by night" of the tearing down of the morals of the nation. Many are the evils, iniquities and injustices, which thrive in our midst; but let us in the face of this evil day continue to lift Him up who said "And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me."

POLITICS: The political situation throughout the land is corrupted beyond the expressions of words. All parties in their mad rush for leadership tend to lower the standard of morality that should be the political standard for all machines. The big men are taking the undermen by their throats and forcing them into their parties, with a promise of better financial days for all—which seems to be far away. The election on November 8, points to little change in the future. The controlling power is still in the hands of these who hold the reins of the political horses; and the outlook for a change in politics is still gloomy.

RELIGION: The religious standard of Jesus Christ still has its weight and influence upon the classes and masses today. It is the ligament which holds civilized nations together. Wherever her temples stand, and so long as it is dully honored, there is a foundation of social security, happiness, improvement, and progress of our race. And today as we labor on this edifice with usefulness and distinction, we clear its foundation, strengthen its pillars, adorn its entablatures, and lend our efforts to raise its august dome still higher in the skies—connecting ourselves in name, fame and character, with that which is and must be as durable as the frame of human society.

FOLLOW THOU ME: The afore are the words of Jesus. In the midst of this warfare against the church and the welfare of the nation, we continue to hear that cry for Peace! Peace! when there is no peace. It is our duty to rush up and pronounce our emphatic "No" to all organized or unorganized systems, which attack the soul of the nations. And, perhaps, the hostile movements against the Nation will bring forth, as it has done in the past, the heroic virtues of the leaders. That is one of the benefits of persecution and opposition. Amid the storms and tumbles of time, let us remember that the True Church is always a "stranger and a pilgrim" on this earth. Whatever happens to the Kingdoms and the systems of this world, the Christian's duty will be to follow Jesus. The words He said to Peter after He had forgiven and restored him were "Follow Thou Me."

REPORTS

REPORT OF LOCAL CHURCH EXTENSION BOARD

This board was called to investigate a matter brought to the attention of the conference by one Brother W. I. Gill of Mt. Olive A. M. E. church, Evinston, Florida.

Brother Gill contends that at one time the congregation worshipping under its present name at Evinston, Florida, worshipped at Boardman as Mt. Olive A. M. E. church; that the entire congregation moved with their building to Evinston, leaving the land upon which the building stood unoccupied. Some months ago, states Brother Gill, it was found that this land at Boardman was being possessed. He states that upon investigation, he learned that the land had been sold for the sum of $60.00; that the Deed had been recorded April 18, 1938.

He contends that Presiding Elder Dickerson and one J. A. Nanteil, a trustee at Evinston, sold the property without the consent of the church; that the church will consent to the sale if the purchase price is paid to it.

Presiding Elder Dickerson states that Brother Gill is in error. First, he is not an officer of Mt. Olive church and of course, is not the one to bring a complaint of the trustees of Mt. Olive church; that the land in question went back to the original donors when the building was moved and church services no longer held; that taxes have accrued now showing the land is now private property, the sale of which would not be of concern to Mt. Olive A.M.E. church.

In that it appears that the land in question is no longer the property of Mt. Olive church, we recommend that that congregation be notified of the same and the matter dropped.

Respectfully submitted:

REPORT ON EDUCATION

It would appear on the surface that the world by this date should be quite well educated. But upon closer investigation we must admit that the masses of the world have not yet been touched. Education has had different meanings at different periods of the world's history. Also it has been interpreted differently by different people at the same time.

While today different people still have their several viewpoints, it appears that the modern world is more unified in its concept of education than at any previous time.

We are gradually coming to a general understanding that education is that process which changes the whole man. The educative process sublimates the mind and cleanses the heart. Only by such education can the world pull itself out of its morass to the highlands of morals and social health.

There was a time when it was felt that one could be educated by receiving the instructions of the school only. Then, in order to create a society unified in thought and conduct it was only necessary to decide what was wanted and then to mold the desired product out of the schools and colleges.

But all that has changed. Today one is educated from many different sources. Now, instead of the solitary influence of the little red schoolhouse, we are also molded and influenced by the daily paper, magazines and books, the radio, the theatre. All these various avenues struggle for pre-eminence in the lives of modern men.

Over against all these forces stands the church or denominational school. In the world, not of it, church schools train not only for participation in this world, but points the youth to the skies. The church school believes that the world's standards of efficiency should be met, but that these are too low. The church school gauges itself by the program of Jesus Christ.

Not only life that is intellectual, prosperous and worldly successful, but a life that is God'y, devout and in harmony with divine Truth:—this is the high goal of the church school such as our own Edward Waters College.

The world today needs to be educated as surely as it did in the Middle Ages, but unless it educates itself to climb rather than expand nothing can prevent more disaster and misery. It may be well to invest in oil wells, railroads, mines, or in real estate; but if we would invest a dollar where it can continue to wield its influence with increasing force down through the ages, then let us put our dollar into that Christian Education typified by the Church School.

The day shall come if we faint not, when men and women with trained minds and consecrated hearts shall rise as one mighty battalion and, marching with determined tread, shall slay the monsters of avarice, hatred, war and murder. And, then shall the light shine; then shall the lamb and the lion lie down together in peace; then shall the Prince of darkness know he is at last defeated and take his fearful flight to the dark shades of oblivion reserved for him and his legions of evil.

These are the ends and aims of real education. These are the goals toward which we have set our faces and upon which we pledge our faith.

Rev. L. F. MORSE

STATE OF THE CHURCH

To the Bishop and Members of the Northeast Conference:

To me has been assigned the very pleasant task of preparing a report on "The State of the Church." I beg to submit the following as my findings:

The Church of God is an institution founded upon natural affinity; the word "Church" is used to express various meanings, the most common of which are: (1) An entire body composed of those who are savingly related to Christ; (2) The aggregation of all the ecclesiastical communion professing faith in Christ; (3) A particular Christian denomination; (4) A single organization Christian congregation; (5) A building dedicated for Christian worship. It is essential to keep the large variety of meanings clearly in mind to prevent confusion of thought and discussion upon this all-important subject.

The New Testament word translated Church from the Greek means called out or the call, "the elect." The fundamental meaning of the term thus appears to be the whole company of the true believers, those called out from the world into spiritual communion of which Christ is the head. We find, however, narrow and lower meanings attached to the word. It refers sometimes to the company of believers in a particular place of worship.

The Church, in the true sense, is a congregation of faithful men to which the word of God is preached in its purity and the sacrament duly administered. To my mind, there is no report of such importance as that touching "The State of the Church." The great work as seen in the ministry and layity of our church today needs encouragement.

When a church building is built and dedicated, it is deeded to God and religious service. From the moment that it is turned over to God, it becomes His property and it must be used for worship. It is therefore a sacred place, "A house of God and a gate to heaven." While men build it, God owns it, dwells in it, and speaks in it through His ambassadors.

The A.M.E. church in Florida has had its struggles fighting against disadvantages from within as well as from without, but in due time, God sends Bishop R. A. Grant, D.D., LL.D., who in a short space of time has accomplished much toward further advances. We feel that the church in Florida will be doubly strong under his leadership. The church in general is moving onward and upward in the light of the gospel of the Son of God, and is a mighty, potent factor in effort for soul saving, race building and the dissemination of the wholesome principles of the Golden Rules—"Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so to them." We trust and pray that the church will have good leaders everywhere.

Then when the golden sunrays sparkle for their last time upon the silver dew drops, and clothe themselves in the dark shroud of eternity as they set behind the western hills and time smiles itself away into the realms of God's unknown, we feel that He who bought the church with his blood, will be able to present before His Father's throne, a church spotless white and see the travail of his soul and be satisfied.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE

November 18, 1939

To the Bishop and Members of the Northeast Conference:

We, the committee on Temperance, beg to make and report that men in all walks of life are learning that it pays to be temperate in all things. The church as an agency in pointing men to the highest plane of life, where virtues and qualities should adorn human character, should shine forth in all its beauty as demonstrated in the character of the Son of Man.

Moral virtue will show itself to a greater or lesser degree as that which exercises the will to resist the evil influences of temptation. Total abstinence is better, if man will observe it, but if they will not observe it, by all means we should be temperate in all things. The book of James says: Wine is a mockery, strong drink is raging, whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. Strong drink is one of man's worst enemies. It has stranded thousands.

The tongue has stranded thousands. A deceitful tongue in our opinion is as bad as strong drinks, both of them will destroy in this life and the life to come. The majority of preachers have pulled away from it and we fast and pray for power. Do not depend upon the influence of strong drinks for spiritual inspiration, we urge that all of us watch these enemies that destroy our moral character.
